Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “150% Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- “150% Completion Rate” is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Number of Graduates Taking Exam” is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- “First Available Exam Date” is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- “Passage Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.

- “Number Who Passed First Available Exam” is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT’S RIGHT TO CANCEL CNA PROGRAM

1. The student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement for a program, without any penalty or obligations, through attendance at the first-class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.
2. Cancellation may occur and may be documented in via mail, hand delivery, email only. If the student provides a written notice of cancellation, it can be addressed to:
VIP Nursing School 16388 East 14th Street, San Leandro, CA 94578 directed to Josephine V. Dondriano, Program Director.
3. The written notice of cancellation, if sent by mail, is effective when deposited in the mail property addressed with proper postage.
4. The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that the student no longer wishes to be bound by the Enrollment Agreement.
5. If the Enrollment Agreement is cancelled by the applicant, or the applicant does not show or start attending the program, or is not accepted the school, the institution will refund the student any money he/she paid, less the Non-Refundable Registration fee not to exceed $100.00, and less any deduction for uniform, supplies, and textbooks not returned in new condition within 14 days after the notice of cancellation is received.
6. If the Enrolled Agreement is cancelled by the institution due to the program start date being cancelled, the student will receive a full refund of all money he/she paid.
7. Any questions a student may have regarding this catalog that have not been satisfactorily answered by the institution may be directed to the:

“A student or any member of the public may file a complaint about this institution with the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education calling (888) 370-7589 toll-free or by completing a complaint form, which can be obtained on the Bureau’s internet Web site: www.bppe.ca.gov

HOW TO CANCEL

A notice of cancellation shall be in writing, and a withdrawal may be operative by the student’s written notice or by the student’s conduct, including, but not necessarily limited to, a student’s lack of attendance. The student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. The institution shall refund one hundred (100) percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less the non-refundable registration fee not to exceed 100 hundred dollars ($100.00).

VIP NURSING SCHOOL

16388 East 14th Street, San Leandro, CA 94578

Phone: (510) 481-0240; (510) 481-0360; Fax: (510) 481-0242

Website: www.vipnursing.net; Email: info@vipnursing.net

The institution shall issue a refund for unearned institutional charges if the student cancels an enrollment agreement or withdraws during a period of attendance. The refund policy for students who have completed sixty (60) percent or less of the period of attendance shall be a pro rata refund. The institution shall pay or credit refunds within thirty (30) days of a student's cancellation or withdrawal.

REFUND POLICY

The amount owed to the student equals the institutional charge for the instruction divided by the total number of clock hours in the period of attendance multiplied by the number of clock hours the student has not attended prior to withdrawal. No refunds are due once the student has received 60% or more of the clock hours of instruction in any given period of attendance.

For purposes of determining a refund, a student shall be considered to have withdrawn from an educational program when he/she withdraws, or is deemed withdrawn in accordance with the withdrawal policy stated in this institutional catalog.

The student notifies the institution of the student's withdrawal, or as the date of the student's withdrawal, whichever is later.

The institution terminates the student's enrollment for failure to maintain satisfactory progress, failure to abide by the rules and regulations of the institution: absences in excess of maximum set forth by the institution, and/or failure to meet financial obligations to the institution.

If an institution has collected money from a student for transmittal on the student's behalf to a third party for a bond, library usage, or fees for a license, application, or examination and the institution has not paid the money to the third party at the time of the student's withdrawal or cancellation, the institution shall refund the money to the student within 30 days of the student's withdrawal or cancellation.

If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of moneys not paid from federal student financial and program funds.

This institution shall refund any credit balance on the student's account within 30 days after the date of the student's completion of, or withdrawal from the educational program in which the student was enrolled.
